

The parish green waste service has been suspended until further notice. The decision to close service has not been taken lightly but it is essential to encourage residents to stay at home and limit the spread of Coronavirus (COVID-19).